CLARINGTON WORKFORCE AND FUTURE OCCUPATION GROWTH

Occupation by resident 10,960 Sales & service 8.515 ades, transport & equipment operators 7,505 Business finance & administra-5,205 Management 3,020 Manufacturing & utilities

Highly skilled workforce

Location quotient by industry in comparison to the national average

4.66 Electrical and electronics engineering technologist technicians

4.13 Machinery manufacturing

3.49 Contractors, supervisors and other trades

3.19 Electrical & electronics engineers

2.50 Mechanical engineers

Commuter data

55% of residents in our skilled workforce commute

less than 30 min to work

Approximately 45% of our highly skilled workforce remains local

Diverse talent pool

Local post-secondary institution programs produce the skills that are required in the following industries:

Local programs that provide skilled labor:

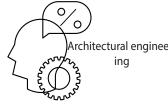

- Biomedical
- Engineering
- Business & administration
- Health care
- Biology

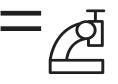

Computer systems and design

Utility system construction

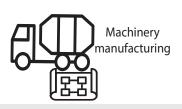

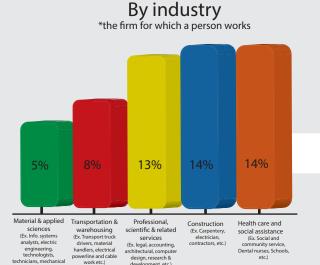

Health/life sciences

Building equipment contractors

Expected growth by 2022

Job creation

Natural resources & agriculture (farmworkers, agricultural technicians & engineer foresters, etc.) +111%

Health (doctor, medicial assistant, nursing assistant, therapist, pharmacist, etc.)

Business, finance & administration, consultant, asles, administration, customer service, accountant, etc.)

+11%

By occupation

*specific task or set of tasks

1+11%

Trade, transport
& equipment operations (truck driver, material mover, distribution/warehousing operations,et

e, accountant, etc.) distribution/warehousing opera